WORLD'S LONGEST BASMATI RICE

HEER Basmati rice gets its long slender-grained aromatic rice which is traditionally from the Indian Subcontinent. No ceremonial feast or a spread is complete without the savory HEER rice. Length of each grain for HEER Basmati rice is extraordinary. The rice grain is remarkably long and the soft texture melts in the mouth to offer a heightened sensory experience. Known for its exceptional length and svelte shape, it has won popularity and is a fit for a range of cuisines.
