Traditional chakki-like grinding method

Rich in essential vitamins

Makes soft delicious rotis

Heer Chakki atta is made from the Malwa region of Madhya Pradesh and recognised as the best suitable land for the cultivation of ideal wheat in India.

The wheat crop of this land is grounded and processed in the latest improved agromachineries. All natural nutrients retained with special chakki process. Special care has been taken to give softest and tastiest fluffy Rotis, and to retain the nutrition of the atta.
